Docket: 3:13CR00093-002
November 13, 2014

On May 29, 2013, John Nasrat appeared before Your Honor for an Initial Appearance after being charged with violating 21 U.S.C. § 846 - Conspiracy to Distribute a Controlled Substance (Analogue). A detention hearing was held on June 3, 2013, and the defendant was released on that date to pretrial services supervision with special conditions.

Previous Violations:

The defendant missed numerous appointments beginning in July 2013 through May 12, 2014 and failed to follow the directions of his pretrial services officer as instructed. There was also no face to face contact with defendant from November 20, 2013, through May 19, 2014. The Court was notified of the violation on May 19, 2014. On July 7, 2014, the defendant appeared before Your Honor for a bond revocation hearing. The defendant was allowed to remain on bond.

New Violations:

The defendant must not violate any federal, state, or local law while on release:

On October 30, 2014 the defendant's vehicle was pulled over, for speeding, by the Tennessee Highway Patrol. The defendant received a citation for Driving on a Suspended License.

The defendant must report as soon as possible, within 48 hours, to the pretrial services office or supervising officer any contact with any law enforcement personnel, including, but not limited to, any arrest, questioning, or traffic stop:

The defendant did not report the above contact with law enforcement until he reported to the probation office on November 3, 2014.

Officer's Actions:

The defendant was reprimanded by this officer when he reported to the probation office on November 3, 2014. The defendant was reminded of the condition to report all law enforcement contact within 48 hours, and he is not to operate a motor vehicle without being properly licensed.

Respectfully Petitioning the Court as Follows:

The U.S. Probation and Pretrial Services Office would respectfully request no action be taken at this time. Assistant U.S. Attorney Brent Hannafan has been contacted and has no objection.

Violating any of the foregoing conditions of release may result in the immediate issuance of a warrant for your arrest, a revocation of your release, an order of detention, a forfeiture of any bond, and a prosecution for contempt of court and could result in imprisonment, a fine, or both.

While on release, if you commit a federal felony offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than ten years and for a federal misdemeanor offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than one year. The penalties for tampering, retaliation, or intimidation are significantly more serious if they involve a killing or attempted killing.

If, after release, you knowingly fail to appear as the conditions of release require, or to surrender to serve a sentence, you may be prosecuted for failing to appear or surrender and additional punishment may be imposed. If you are convicted of:

- (1) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment, or imprisonment for a term of fifteen years or more – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than 10 years, or both;
- (2) an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of five years or more, but less than fifteen years – you will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both;
